

Quilt Lover's Tour to Chicago April 10 to 23, 2010 - 14 Days / 13 Nights

Join Ambassatours Gray Line for a new quilting adventure: the International Quilt Festival in Chicago. Don't miss attending one of North America's largest quilt shows.

Before attending the quilt festival, there will be time to explore the Windy City. Enjoy a guided tour followed by a boat tour along Lake Michigan to see the city's famous architecture. Visit the Chicago History Museum with its collection of more than 140 quilts. - One evening, you'll be transported back to Tommy Gun's Garage during the roaring '20s, a "speakeasy" which offers a musical comedy revue with gangsters and flappers.

So, gather your friends and family, quilters and non-quilters for this fantastic tour to Chicago. Husbands are more than welcome too!
