Quilter of the Month: Valerie McCloskey It was Jeri's great pleasure to introduce a long time member of our Quild to those present. Her history of creativity was first guided by her grandmother, and through her Irish eyes (and hands) continued her creativity through her lifetime to present day. She shared her creative history with the guild; from embroidery pillowcases her grandmother nourished her with, to elegant crocheting, beautiful cross-stitch and Crewel, and a priceless quilt gift to a co-worker. Congratulations Valerie, truly an inspiration to all, we are very sure your grandmother would be very proud. Thank you for sharing your gift of history and talent.	Jeri Burke and our Quilter of the Month Valerie McCloskey
New Library Books: The Quilting Answer Book (Barbara Weiland Talbert) Log Cabin with a Twist (Barbara Karenpfer) Quilt with Panels-Company's coming Quilting for dummies (Cheryl Fall) Fast Asleep (Nancy Odom) Layercake Jelly Roll and Charm Quilts (Pam and Nicky Lintott) Embroidery Machine Essentials (Mary Mulari) Kids Quilts in a Weekend (Elizabeth Keevill) Quilting Arts TV (Patricia Bolton)
Program: Jeri introduced Susan Delaney, one of our members and website master. Susan gave a very informative talk on insurance and the importance of having the right insurance to cover our sewing rooms, stash and more. Water damage is one of the most common claim reasons and Susan encouraged us to make sure of our coverage by calling our broker to get educated on the coverage we do have to make sure it is enough to replace our valuables. Susan will post definitions of types of insurances so we can understand more and are better prepared to discuss with our broker our needs. Also, Susan encouraged us to take pictures of all of our contents in our homes and put them in a safe place so that we can make sure our contents are replaced.	Susan Delaney
50/50 Draw: $ 34.00 Winner Roxanne LeBlanc	Pat Hume
